Program

The main educational thrust of the course is to enhance the physician's skill in fine needle biopsy techniques and interpretation. The major emphasis will be on clinical support and cooperation between the general practitioner, internist, surgeon, radiologist, and pathologist. The first day of the program (September 29) will feature didactic sessions on "Fine Needle Biopsy: Past and Present" (Tilde S. Kline, MD), "Aspiration Biopsy of the Neck and Breast" (Angelos A. Kambouris, MD, Hunter S. Neal, MD, Tilde S. Kline, MD), "Aspiration Biopsy: Intrathoracic Lesions" (William R. Eyler, MD, John R. Thornbury, MD, Bernard Naylor, MD, Hunter S. Neal, MD), "Aspiration Biopsy of Thyroid" (J. Martin Miller, MD, Joel T. Hamburger, MD, Sudha R. Kini, MD), "Aspiration Biopsy: Intra-abdominal Organs and Prostate" (William R. Eyler, MD, Beatrice L. Madrazo, MD, Hunter S. Neal, MD, Tilde S. Kline, MD), as well as a panel discussion on patient management, aspiration technique, indications, complications, and the future of aspiration biopsy.

The program on the second day is primarily aimed at the endocrinologist and surgeon. There will be a demonstration of the technique of thyroid needle biopsy, followed by discussion of patient management based on biopsy diagnosis. The workshops (September 30, October 1) will be devoted to the interpretation of aspiration biopsies of various organs. The format will include didactic sessions on cytopathology followed by microscopic review.

Each participant will receive a syllabus containing abstracts of the presentation, techniques, and a set of kodachromes depicting cytological features of various lesions.

Registration Fees (Does not include lunch or educational materials)

- $350 - Full course (any three days)
- $125 - Single day (or half-day)
- $ 30 - Workshop audit only

A $25.00 deposit must accompany registration to cover the cost of kodachromes.

Corrections

Nancy McIntosh, MD, should be listed as the co-author of the lead article on zoonoses in the Vol. 30, No. 1, 1982 issue of the Journal. The full citation should read:

McIntosh Nancy, Madhavan Tom. Zoonoses in modern medical practice. 1982;30:4-6.

The editorial by Mr. Stanley Nelson, "An Exciting Period in Our History," on p. 44 of the Vol. 30, No. 1, 1982 issue of the Journal incorrectly identified Mr. Nelson as president of the American Hospital Association. Mr. Nelson's correct title is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the American Hospital Association.
